

Planning and Quality Assurance Affairs

Form (A)

Course Specifications

General Information

Course name	Medical Terminology
Course number	DENT1102
Faculty
Department
Course type	Major Needs
Course level	1
Credit hours (theoretical)	1
Credit hours (practical)	0
Course Prerequisites

Course Objectives

- 1 - To provide the students with the basic principles of medical Word building and enable them to understand the prefixes, suffixes, and word roots for formation of medical terms from Latin and Greek words

Course Contents

- 1 - Introduction and suffixes 2 - Prefixes and body as a whole 3 - Integumentary system 4 - Gastro in testinal system 5 - Respiratory system 6 - Cardiovascular system 7 - Blood and lymphatic system 8 - Musculoskeletal system 9 - Urogenital system 10 - Female reproductive system 11 - Special senses 12 - Oenology 13 - Endocrine system 14 - Nervous system

Books and References

- |                 |  |
|-----------------|--|
| Essential books | Essential books Medical Terminology, A systems Approach, Barbara A. G. and Mary E. W., Elsevier,1983 |
|-----------------|--|