

Planning and Quality Assurance Affairs

Form (A)

Course Specifications

General Information

Course name	Removable Prosthodontic III Lab
Course number	DENT3122
Faculty
Department
Course type	Major Needs
Course level	3
Credit hours (theoretical)	0
Credit hours (practical)	1
Course Prerequisites

Course Objectives

1 - 1 - How partial denture construction in lab

Course Contents

1 - 1 - Step I : palatal plate construction Alginate impression on the patient & pouring the impression 2 - -make wire clasp on the castfor anterior teeth 3 - -make wire clasp on the casts for posterior teeth 4 -Make interim denture base on the cast - 5 Fittingpalatal plate to the pt.palate and discussion. - 6 Step II : acrylic resin RBD construction :special tray fabrication for partially edentulous patient - 7 - Wireclasp construction 8 - -trail denture base fabrication for partially edentulous patient with occlusal rim 9 -Mounting the partially edentulous casts on articulator - 10 - Setting of artificial anterior teeth 11 - Setting of artificial posterior teeth 12 - waxing up , flasking , finishing and polishing 13 denture repair - 14 - Step III: skeleton RBD construction :Design the framework using wax

Teaching and Learning Methods

1 - 1 - Power point (presentation) 2 - Demonstration 3 - Supervision and discussion
--

Books and References

Course note	Course note A color Atlas of removable partial dentures 2011 J.C. Davenport Recommended books Removable partial prosthodontics 2012 Dr. Sybille K lechner
-------------	---