

Planning and Quality Assurance Affairs

Form (A)

Course Specifications

General Information

Course name	Internal Medicine
Course number	DENT3151
Faculty
Department
Course type	Major Needs
Course level	3
Credit hours (theoretical)	1
Credit hours (practical)	0
Course Prerequisites

Course Objectives

1 - 2 - To know the basic concepts of internal medicine To know different types of diseases which can affect kidney , urinary tract , cardiovascular , respiratory and gastrointestinal system
--

Intended Learning Outcomes

Knowledge and Understanding	* Knowledge and Understanding ? Diagnose different types of diseases which can affect kidney , urinary tract , cardiovascular , respiratory and gastrointestinal system
-----------------------------	---

Course Contents

1 - 1 - Introduction to clinical medicine 2 - Introduction to clinical medicine 3 - Cardinal manifestation and presentation of disease 4 - Genes , the environment and the disease 5 - Regenerative medicine 6 - Aging 7 - Nutrition 8 - Oncology and hematology 9 - Infectious disease 10 - Disorders of the cardiovascular system 11 - Disorders of respiratory system 12 - Disorders of the kidney and urinary tract 13 - Disorders of gastrointestinal system 14 - Endocrinology and metabolism
---

Teaching and Learning Methods

1 - 1 - Lectures 2 - Power Point 3 - Assignments 4 - Discussions
--

Books and References

Course note	Essential books Harrisons Principles of Internal Medicine,Dan Longo,Cenveo,2012 Harrisons Manual Medicine,Dan Longo,Cenveo,2012
-------------	---

