

Planning and Quality Assurance Affairs

Form (A)

Course Specifications

General Information

Course name	Oral Medicine II
Course number	DENT4113
Faculty
Department
Course type	Major Needs
Course level	4
Credit hours (theoretical)	1
Credit hours (practical)	0
Course Prerequisites

Course Objectives

- 1 - The oral medicine course constitutes of two main components: theoretical and clinical parts. The theoretical part is delivered to students through oral medicine interactive lectures that will provide insight into most primary and secondary lesions affecting oral and para-oral structures of hard and soft tissues.

Course Contents

- 1 - 1. Gingival diseases 2. Lip lesions bone lesions 3. Soft tissue cyst 4. Soft tissue tumors 5. Nick swelling 6. Lymph-node and salivary gland swellings 7. Orofacial pain 8. TMJ disorders

Books and References

Essential books      Burkitt book