

Planning and Quality Assurance Affairs

Form (A)

Course Specifications

General Information

Course name	Periodontology I
Course number	DENT4117
Faculty
Department
Course type	Major Needs
Course level	4
Credit hours (theoretical)	1
Credit hours (practical)	0
Course Prerequisites

Course Objectives

- 1 - Periodontology course constitutes of two main components: theoretical and clinical parts. The aim of the course to make student understand clearly the structure, components, functions of periodontal structures, how to preserve them, prevention of periodontal diseases, pathogenesis, and treatment.

Course Contents

- 1 - 1. Etiology of periodontal diseases. 2. Recent classification of periodontal diseases. 3. systemic predisposing factors (Influence of systemic diseases & disorders on periodontium). 4. local predisposing factors. 5. Pathogenesis of periodontal diseases.

Books and References

Essential books Carranza book