

Planning and Quality Assurance Affairs

Form (A)

Course Specifications

General Information

Course name	Principles of Periodontology
Course number	DENT4222
Faculty
Department
Course type	Major Needs
Course level	4
Credit hours (theoretical)	2
Credit hours (practical)	0
Course Prerequisites

Course Objectives

- 1 - Periodontology course constitutes of two main components: theoretical and clinical parts. The aim of the course to make student understand clearly the structure, components, functions of periodontal structures, how to preserve them, prevention of periodontal diseases, pathogenesis, and treatment.

Course Contents

- 1 - 1. Anatomy of periodontium. 2. Aging of periodontium. 3. Classification of periodontal diseases. 4. Periodontal instruments

Books and References

Essential books Carranza book