

Planning and Quality Assurance Affairs

Form (A)

Course Specifications

General Information

Course name	First Aid & Patient Encounter (0602123)
Course number	MEDI2118
Faculty
Department
Course type	Major Needs
Course level	2
Credit hours (theoretical)	1
Credit hours (practical)	0
Course Prerequisites

Course Objectives

1 - introductory course to second year medical students
2 - To provide the students with knowledge about the basics of life support
3 - illustrate the way to deal with victims
4 - teach the students how to secure airway the save life
5 - who to deal with injuries and burns

Intended Learning Outcomes

Knowledge and Understanding	* The student should be able to classify the injuries and do triage
Professional Skills	* The student should be able to secure air way
	* The student should be able to stop hemmorrhage with basic tools
	* The student should be able to Do CPR
	* The student should be able to deal with burn injries
	* The student should be able to stabilize fractures

Course Contents

1 - Basic life support
2 - Burns
3 - Fractures
4 - Trauma
5 - poisoning

Teaching and Learning Methods

1 - lectures
2 - active demonstrations
3 - Acting
4 - Model demonstrations

Students Assessment

Assessment Method	TIME	MARKS
med exam	med semester	30
Final exam	end of year	70

Books and References

Course note	handouts
-------------	----------

Knowledge and Skills Matrix

Main Course Contents	Study Week	Knowledge and Understanding	Intellectual Skills	Professional Skills	General Skill
an introduction to Basic and advance life support	16 weeks				