

Planning and Quality Assurance Affairs

Form (A)

Course Specifications

General Information

Course name	Physiotherapy for Internal Medicine & Geriatrics
Course number	AMSP4338
Faculty
Department
Course type	Major Needs
Course level	4
Credit hours (theoretical)	3
Credit hours (practical)	0
Course Prerequisites

Course Objectives

1 - 1-	Recognize the basic principles of human ageing process
2 - 2-	Gain and apply the needed skills of physical therapy evaluation, planning, and intervention in age-related disorders.
3 - 3-	Recognize the basic knowledge of vascular disorders
4 - 4-	Gain and apply the needed skills of physical therapy evaluation, planning, and intervention in related vascular disorders

Course Contents

1 -	Theories of Aging
2 -	Effects of Aging on different body systems
3 -	Effects of exercise on the elderly
4 -	A suggested exercise program for the elderly (Be active):
5 -	Some assistive devices for the elderly (Be independent)
6 -	Assessment of the peripheral vascular system
7 -	Physical Therapy for peripheral vascular disease

Teaching and Learning Methods

1 -	Power point presentation
2 -	Hand outs
3 -	Formal lectures

Students Assessment

Assessment Method	TIME	MARKS
First Exam	One Hours	25%
Second exam	One hour	25%
Final exam	Two hours	50%

