

Planning and Quality Assurance Affairs

Form (A)

Course Specifications

General Information

Course name	Conversation(2)
Course number	ENGL3315
Faculty
Department
Course type	Major Needs
Course level	3
Credit hours (theoretical)	3
Credit hours (practical)	0
Course Prerequisites

Course Objectives

- 1 - Breaking the ice between the student and the language
- 2 - The ability to use critical thinking
- 3 - The ability to play any role in life
- 4 - The ability to think and speak in English at the same time
- 5 - How to be convincing
- 6 - Breaking the ice between the students and the language by conducting a presentation in public

Course Contents

- 1 - This course is designed to help students improve their English speaking skills through role playing, practice exercises, and group activities. Students are expected to actively participate in classroom activities and discussions. The course will also help students develop their ability to deliver effective presentations using verbal and non-verbal language. Open discussions, mini-lectures, audio-visual aids, role-playing and self-assessment are some of the techniques and learning methods to be used and developed by students. Through rehearsal and practice, students will feel more confident about speaking in public.

Teaching and Learning Methods

- 1 - The Lecturer proposes general topics for discussion
- 2 - Students are required to perform individual presentations
- 3 - Error analysis regarding language and pronunciation problems

Students Assessment

Assessment Method	TIME	MARKS
Performing a major role in a role-Play	Eighth week of the semester	20
Presentation	Alphabetic order	10
Attendance and Participation	Throughout the semester	10
Final Exam	End of the semester	60

Books and References

Course note	General Topics proposed by the Lecturer
	Topics selected by the students for discussion
	Role-plays that are written , produced, directed and performed by the students
Other References (Periodical, web sites, etc.)	website references to elaborate the discussed topics and ideas