

Planning and Quality Assurance Affairs

Form (A)

Course Specifications

General Information

Course name	History of Civilization
Course number	ENGL4320
Faculty
Department
Course type	Major Needs
Course level	4
Credit hours (theoretical)	3
Credit hours (practical)	0
Course Prerequisites

Course Objectives

1	- Have enough knowledge and information about English history and civilization particularly great events and developments and predominant characters in the English History
2	- Be able to judge modern and contemporary events in light of events of the past
3	- Understand the lessons taught by history which can help them form their opinions and stands concerning some social, economical and political in their life
4	- This course in history and civilization is meant to acquaint the students of the first level with the formati, rise of English culture, language and literature. For this purpose, students will be presented with a brief sketch of the major developments in English history starting with the Roman conquest of Britain and concluding with the rise of the great British Empire under Elizabeth I. Meanwhile the course will seek to emphasize the impact of the significant developments in English history, whether religious, economical, social or political in molding and structuring the English culture, language and literature. Special emphasis will be laid on the rise and development of English Language and Literature in the Old and Middle and English eras.

Teaching and Learning Methods

1	- Lectures
2	- Discussion and Argumentation

Students Assessment

Assessment Method	TIME	MARKS
Mid-Term Exam	Eighth week of the semester	30
Attendance and Participation	Throughout the semester	5
Assignment	Second half of the semester	5
Final Exam	End of the semester	60

Books and References

Course note	Lecturer notes
Essential books	Buckle, H 2001 History of Civilization of England
Recommended books	Burgess, A 1999 History of English Literature
Other References (Periodical, web sites, etc.)	Selected Martial from the internet