

Planning and Quality Assurance Affairs

Form (A)

Course Specifications

General Information

Course name	Environment and Human Geography
Course number	GEOG1335
Faculty
Department
Course type	Major Needs
Course level	1
Credit hours (theoretical)	3
Credit hours (practical)	0
Course Prerequisites

Course Objectives

1 -	To highlight the most important problems.
2 -	To train students on researching study of some various aspects of the environment.
3 -	To identify environmental concepts and dimensions.
4 -	To highlight the most important international and Arab legislations which are related to environment subject.
5 -	To highlight the most important international and Arab legislations which are related to environment subject.

Course Contents

1 -	This course studies the general framework of environment with an explanation of its basic aspects and concepts through its contemporary perspective. It also studies the development of the relationship between human being and his environment.
-----	---

Teaching and Learning Methods

1 -	Lectures
2 -	Reports and Research Papers

Students Assessment

Assessment Method	TIME	MARKS
نصف الفصل	الاسبوع الثامن	30
حضور ومناقشة	خلال الفصل الدراسي	10
حضور ومناقشة	نهاية الفصل الدراسي	60

Books and References

Essential books	Introduction to Environmental Sciences
-----------------	--

