

Planning and Quality Assurance Affairs

Form (A)

Course Specifications

General Information

Course name	Introduction of Psychology
Course number	PSYC1311
Faculty
Department
Course type	Major Needs
Course level	1
Credit hours (theoretical)	3
Credit hours (practical)	0
Course Prerequisites

Course Objectives

- 1 - To introduce psychology as new science for students
- 2 - To introduce the main aims , importance and the main topic of psychology

Intended Learning Outcomes

Knowledge and Understanding	* To understand how behaviour occurs from the psychological point of view
Intellectual Skills	* to enable student how to analyse behaviour
Professional Skills	* to enable student how to measure and identify problematic behaviour

Course Contents

- 1 - Introduction to psychology
- 2 - the importance of psychology and its aims and means of re4searching
- 3 - theories of psychology
- 4 - motivation
- 5 - sensation and recognition
- 6 - thinking
- 7 - memory and forgetting

Teaching and Learning Methods

- 1 - lectures and discussions
- 2 - cooperative learning and teaching
- 3 - self learning
- 4 - group teaching and learning

Teaching and Learning Methods for the Disabled Students

- 1 - students with special needs will be considered

---

Students Assessment

Assessment Method	TIME	MARKS
mid exam	by the end of the first half of the semester	30
participation and attendance	during all semester	10
final exam	by the end of semester	60

---

Books and References

Course note	essential book handouts