

Planning and Quality Assurance Affairs

Form (A)

Course Specifications

General Information

Course name	Criminal Psychology
Course number	PSYC3318
Faculty
Department
Course type	Major Needs
Course level	3
Credit hours (theoretical)	3
Credit hours (practical)	0
Course Prerequisites

Course Objectives

- 1 - To be aware of the most common topics in criminal psychology and its importance and aims
- 2 - to be aware of the most common ways of searching in the field of criminal psychology

Intended Learning Outcomes

Knowledge and Understanding	* To have the basic knowledge and data about the main topics ,aims and the importance of criminal psychology
Intellectual Skills	* To enable a student to interpret the accuracy of criminal behaviour
Professional Skills	* to acquire a student the professional skills of research in the field of clinical psychology

Course Contents

- 1 - the concept of criminal psychology, its aims, importance, and subjects
- 2 - Theories of criminal behaviour
- 3 - the psychology of police, advocate, and judge
- 4 - The relation between psychopathology and criminal behaviour

Teaching and Learning Methods

- 1 - lectures, discussion, and group work

Teaching and Learning Methods for the Disabled Students

- 1 - Students with special needs will be taken into account during lectures . using additional means of teaching

Students Assessment

Assessment Method	TIME	MARKS
midtearm exam	seventh week of the simester	25
partecipation and attendance	during all semister	15
final exam	by the end of the course	60

Books and References

Course note	essential book handouts