

Planning and Quality Assurance Affairs

Form (A)

Course Specifications

General Information

Course name	School Guidance
Course number	PSYC3319
Faculty
Department
Course type	Major Needs
Course level	3
Credit hours (theoretical)	3
Credit hours (practical)	0
Course Prerequisites

Course Objectives

1 - knowing of school counseling concept
2 - - knowing of school counseling concept and counseling skills
3 - the application of counseling skills for the student in the schools to reduce their problem
4 - - acquisition skills of interpersonal communication through application of applied counseling skills
5 - - knowing of the main problems of a Students such as academic achievement retardation Autism, learning difficulties, behavior activity
6 - treatment of these problem such as Diagnosis and Psychological, medical and physical therapy.

Intended Learning Outcomes

Knowledge and Understanding	* concept of counseling
Intellectual Skills	* Brainstorming according of unique problems under the educational counseling
Professional Skills	* how to deal with children with special needs and the student with school problem by applied skills through counseling process
General Skill	* mastering of school counseling skills and methods

Course Contents

1 - schools counseling content counseling skills inter personal communication, problems of students _ schools achievement retardation
2 - autism _ Frequent activity _ learning difficulties

Teaching and Learning Methods

1 - lecture and dialogue _ reaches and application of counseling skills for the problemed children
--

Teaching and Learning Methods for the Disabled Students

1 - Discussion and dialogue
