

Planning and Quality Assurance Affairs

Form (A)

Course Specifications

General Information

Course name	Medical Sociology
Course number	SOCI4323
Faculty
Department
Course type	Major Needs
Course level	4
Credit hours (theoretical)	3
Credit hours (practical)	0
Course Prerequisites

Course Objectives

- 1 - To highlight the reasons of studying Medical Sociology
- 2 - To identify the social diseases and differentiate between them and neurological, psychological or physical diseases
- 3 - To recognize the active role of health institutions in treating social diseases
- 4 - To recognize the most important occupational diseases and how to protect yourself from such disease

Course Contents

- 1 - The importance of Medical Sociology
- 2 - The study of social theories about doctor-patient relationship
- 3 - The role of culture and social environment in creating diseases in the society
- 4 - A short brief about occupational diseases and how it is related to industry
- 5 - The reasons of mental disorders and how to treat them

Books and References

Essential books	Medical Sociology (Sayyed Omar, Nadia )
Recommended books	Studies in Medical Sociology (Mohammed, Mohammed 2011)